Girl Scouts are Tech & Community Leaders! Marina is an outstanding volunteer who has served as a CPR/first aid instructor, community money manager, troop money manager, troop helper, and more. Marina graduated from St. Mary’s University with her BBA and earned her MBA from DePaul Kellstadt Graduate School of Business. She is a Junior at James Madison High School and plans to attend Texas A&M University to pursue a career in computer science.

NEW Sessions

Week 2: Archaeology Adventure

June 21-26

Price: $350

For girls entering grades 6–12

Perform an exciting shovel test, use modern technology to survey historic sites and work alongside UTSA archaeologists to uncover Camp La Jita’s 8,000 year-old secrets! The work completed during this camp session will contribute to real ongoing research and help preserve the site for the use of Girl Scouts!

Week 2: Reach New Heights – Adventure Land

June 21-26

Price: $350

This is a MUST for girls who like something different, challenging and exhilarating! This session is designed to challenge girls to push themselves as they conquer Camp La Jita’s new adventure course.

What’s new in the Resource Center?

Be a Super Troop

AND LEARN A PATCH!

Give girls lots of variety in their Girl Scout experience by including as many of these activities in your calendar plan for the year. TIP: each parent in the troop can pick one activity they can help the troop leader organize.
