We’re so lucky to have them as partners! Through 10 years, they have provided girls the resources and knowledge on how to set goals and become financially responsible when earning and managing money. Wells Fargo understands the importance of financial education for girls who will become productive citizens and contribute to the economy. Thank you!

To earn the Wells Fargo Financial Literacy patch, download the free booklet from the Council Patch Programs page at girlscouts-swtx.org.

Congratualtions and BIG thank you to Wells Fargo for 10 years of supporting Girl Scouts and financially empowering thousands of girls with the Wells Fargo Financial Literacy Initiative.

Volunteer Spotlight

Hannah Richmond - Community J

Hannah Richmond, an Appreciation Pin recipient, is an outstanding example of how a Girl Scout crosses the bridge to becoming an adult volunteer who continues to support the Girl Scout Movement.

Hannah stepped up to fill the role of outdoor coordinator for Community J. She shares her experience in Girl Scouting from cookies to songs, from archery to skits, from being a sister to every Girl Scout to making the world a better place.

Thank you, Hannah, for encouraging girls to explore the outdoors!

Madilyn Mimun - Community Q

Small Dog and Relaxation Project

Madilyn Mimun, a Girl Scout Ambassador, partnered with San Antonio Parks and Recreation to install a small dog and relaxation area in Panther Springs Park.

Her project provides a community where owners can take their small dogs to exercise safely without a leash. The addition of strong, durable and stable benches and ramps accommodate visitors with a place to sit and practice social distancing while still having access to the ramps for the pups.

Madilyn graduated from Brandeis High School and plans to attend Texas Tech University with a major in animal science/nursing. She’s been a Girl Scout for 10 years and is a recipient of the GSSWT Trifecta Award.

2021 Fall Product Program

What is Fall Product Program?
Stretch those goal setting, decision making, money managing and people skills with the Fall Product Program. The program offers a ton of yum-tastic chocolate, nuts, mixes and treats and allows girls to create and market their own small business!

Interested in participating?
Talk to your troop’s co-leaders or participate as an individually registered girl (IRG).

In the meantime, make sure your Girl Scout’s membership is up to date, complete the online girl permission slip and check out the Fall Product Program webpage for the 2021 resources and materials.

Program Dates:
- Troop Nut Manager (TNM) Training now available on gsLearn

2022 Girl Scout Cookie Program

More info on the 2022 cookie program will be provided in the fall. Check the GSSWT Cookie Materials webpage for more updates in late September/early October!

Program dates:
- Monday, October 25
  Troop Cookie Manager Training available on gsLearn
- Tuesday, December 14
  Girl Scout Cookie Program officially begins

Girl Scout Strong

Last year wasn’t easy for your girl. That’s why Girl Scouts is here, bolder than ever—ready to help her press play and get back to making her dreams come true.

Girl Scouts of Southwest Texas has lifted most all restrictions concerning COVID-19 health protocols for troops and communities.

We will continue to emphasize face coverings, physical distancing and good hand hygiene in daily activities, as it is proven these tactics are most successful in protecting the girls we serve who are not eligible to receive the COVID-19 vaccine.

For more information, visit our COVID-19 Prevention page.

Keep going with Girl Scouts.
She’ll thank you. The world will thank you.

gsLearn for Volunteers

Attention Troop Co-leaders and Volunteers!

Visit gsLearn, our online training platform, and get the training and resources you need for an amazing Girl Scout year!

Access gsLearn through your MyGS account at girlscouts-swtx.org, select My Account, select gsLearn and then search the Content Library to get ready for a year of incredible Girl Scout adventures!

In gsLearn, online courses are available to you 24/7. We suggest starting with the GSUSA Successful Leader Learning Series and GSUSA Volunteer Toolkit – Troop Leader View or Caregiver View.

Interested in a virtual class? We have that too! Check out the calendar on your gsLearn dashboard for dates and times. Our training library is growing so check back often for new online courses and classes.
